VISION

The QFFM | Queer Film Festival Munich has stood for diversity on the big screen for 9 years and shows films outside of hetero- and homonormative cinema. With its selection of films, the festival questions stereotypes and brings intersectional queer perspectives and aesthetics to the fore. The question of who represents whom in the film landscape and in what way, and what connotations result from this, is central to the curation process.

However, the festival transcends the level of pure representation and sees itself as a platform for filmmakers who read and live queerness as a political, solidary and resistant concept. The works presented at the festival explore diverse lifestyles and forms of sexual expression. Not least, they question what is considered conventional or ,normal'.

The idea that queerness is new and the precarious situation is normal, and that you therefore have to negotiate for every millimetre of freedom, is part of the age-old bag of tricks of conservative dominant societies. Queer history is not part of any compulsory curriculum. With its festival programme, but also various screenings and discussions throughout the year, special screenings for school classes and further education programmes, the QFFM counters institutionalised ignorance with artistic drafts of possible worlds and freedoms.

The festival is a project of Queer Culture e.V., a registered non-profit organisation made up of people from different areas of queer life.

QFFM TEAM

Queer Culture e.V. is a registered non-profit organisation made up of experienced, well-connected people from different areas of queer life and was founded in September 2015.

The aim of the association is to create a public space for intellectual, emotional and actionoriented debate with its cultural offerings, which is why a team of 13 volunteer film professionals and enthusiasts have come together to fill a gap in Munich's film festival calendar with the QFFM I Queer Film Festival Munich!

Since its foundation in 2015, the QFFM has become an integral part of the LGBTIQ* cultural scene, well networked and embedded in the Munich community, with many sold-out and inspiring screenings testifying to the high quality of the international programme and the demand for queer cinema.

As a voluntary, non-commercial organisation, we are looking for supporters who also stand up for a colourful and diverse Munich. as a film festival in Munich, we want to contribute to showing diversity and tolerance and look forward to your support!
